MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

ABOUT THE BULK DRUG INDUSTRY

A) OVERALL INDUSTRY SCENARIO IN INDIA

India has the largest number of FDA-approved drug manufacturing plants with more than 150 formulation facilities and is also the second-largest pharmaceutical supplier to the US market in terms of volume of generic drugs. About 30% or $4 billion worth of India's pharma exports are to the US. According to a report by global credit rating agency stricter norms by USFDA will lead to higher compliance costs for Indian Pharma. The cost of compliance of Indian pharma companies has doubled over the past 5 years, the companies have to invest in bringing compliance processes up to speed as the cost of not doing so will be far higher. The report added that while the ratio of enforcements to manufacturing bases is lower in India compared with elsewhere, the enforcements in India have been clearly due to cultural differences, attitude of employees, inadequate interpretation/understanding and absence of due process and systems.

Most of the enforcements of the last 2 years were related to differences in interpretation or understanding. Stringent FDA norms are due to an increase in FDA staff and infrastructure with the number of inspectors being increased by 7 to 19 and opening offices in Hyderabad and Mumbai. This will include costs of hiring personnel and consultants, apart from investments in upgrading facilities to GMP standards. The agency believes that large Indian pharma companies have the financial flexibility to bear the increased cost of compliance and remain competitive in the US. On the other hand, India continues to enjoy a rising share of ANDA approvals compared to other countries. Till date, the top 10 Indian pharma companies account for more than 800 ANDA filings.

The pharmaceutical industry in India mainly comprises four segments:

- a) Formulations – These are the final products of the drug manufacturing process and they can be in the form of tablets, capsules, injectables, syrups, gel, paste, powder, ointment etc. These can be consumed directly by patients.
- b) API/Bulk drugs (intermediates) – Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (API) is the primary active ingredient that is manufactured in the initial stage of pharmaceutical and drug production. It is the ingredient that results in desired therapeutic effect in the human body. Bulk drugs are active chemical substances and are used in the manufacturing of pharmaceutical and drug formulations. API/bulk drugs can be considered as inputs that are used in making of formulations.
- c) CRAMS – Contract Research and Manufacturing Services (CRAMS) is an outsourcing process that implies outsourcing of research and product manufacturing services at a lower cost.

About USD 55 billion is the expected sales gain to generics drugs on account of branded drugs going off patent during 2018-19. After these patents lose coverage, there will be a requirement to manufacture these drugs in a cost-effective manner to keep them price competitive. This, in turn, will create an opportunity for India that is one of the low-cost manufacturing centres in the world.

- d) Biosimilars - Biosimilars can be referred as medicines that are generic version of biological products. Biosimilars can be manufactured by new companies only after the patent expiry of the original biological product. A biological product is a medical product produced using biotechnology. The immense potential of India in biosimilars market can be supported by the fact that India is equipped with sophisticated Research & Development facilities meeting international standards, cost effective labour.

Position of Indian pharmaceutical industry (IPI)

The Indian pharmaceutical industry holds a strong position in terms of production volumes in the global pharma market as the country contributes around 10% of the world production volumes and in terms of value, India holds a share of around 2.4% globally.

The Indian pharmaceutical industry is largely dominated by generics drugs as the industry earns around 70% of its revenues from the same. This can also be implied from the fact that India holds 13th position in terms of production value in spite of holding third position in terms of production volume globally.

IPI registered revenue of around USD 33 billion in 2016. Exports form a major part of the industry's turnover and over 50% of the sales comes from exports. Lower cost of production coupled by efficient scientific and technical skills of human resources are the prime reasons for growth in exports from India. The cost of drugs manufactured in India is one of the lowest in the world. According to IBEF, the cost of production in India is approximately 60% lower compared to US and almost half when compared to Europe.

B) ABOUT THE OVERALL DOMESTIC MARKET GROWTH:

Robust domestic demand and rising need for complex products in the West will help domestic pharma players log in a 9-10 per cent revenue growth with healthy cash flows over the next coming years, offsetting headwinds in exports and rising competition, says a report. Revenue of domestic pharma companies is seen growing at 9-10 per cent per annum over the next coming fiscal years. Exports which account for nearly 45 per cent of industry revenue, will see marginal one per cent growth in fiscal 2018, but recovering thereafter. Further the industry is witnessing greater price erosion in existing products following competition, and delays in new product launches or import bans on existing products following scrutiny from the US food and drug administration. Besides remediation efforts, companies are also increasing their research and development (R&D) spends to capitalise on the $20 billion-a-year complex products opportunity in the regulated markets. The industry expects R&D spend to increase 7% over fiscal 2017 to reach 30 per cent of annual revenue from the regulated markets over the medium-term. Another factor offsetting the export slowdown is the steady revenue growth from the domestic market, which accounts for 55 per cent of the industry revenue. "Strong demand will help firms maintain 10-11 per cent growth and healthy profitability, despite intense competition and frequent regulatory actions," says the report of one of the rating agency.

The Indian Pharmaceuticals Industry (IPI) earns around 70% of its revenues from sale of generic drugs and generates around 50% of its revenues from exports. In the financial year 2016-17, the industry faced some issues with increased scrutiny of regulatory authorities, increase in competition in generics market of one of its primary export destination, United States of America. This, in turn, resulted in marginal growth in exports to USA. Also, the stricter enforcement of Drug Price Control Order has impacted revenue growth rate of the industry in domestic market.

In 2017-18, the industry is expected to continue to see pricing pressure in both the markets: domestic and exports. However, the rating agency believes that the steady growth in demand from domestic market coupled by a likely increase in export volumes to North American and African markets will support the industry's growth.

Pharma Exports from India

Of the total exports of USD 16.8 billion during the year 2016-17, majority of the exports, accounting for 40.6% were to the American continent followed by 19.7% to Europe, 19.1% to Africa and 18.8% within Asia.

Significance of USA in Indian pharma exports (a major export destination)

Among the countries, United States of America is the primary export destination for India. Exports to USA have been on a rise since more than a decade. The exports are mainly driven by the cost advantage that India has. The share of exports to USA in total drugs & pharma exports from India which was 25.4% in 2012-13 increased to 33.1% in 2016-17. For other countries like UK, South Africa, Nigeria, Russia, Brazil, Germany, Australia, the share of each of these countries in total drugs & pharma exports remained in the range of 1.4%-3.3% in 2016-17.

In 2012-13, exports to USA grew by 14.2% y-o-y to USD 3.7 billion and increased in single digit in each of the following two years. In 2015-16, exports to USA surged by 27.8% to USD 5.5 billion on a y-o-y basis. However, the export scenario to USA weakened and it grew by a marginal 1.3% to USD 5.6 billion in 2016-17.

The prime reasons for the weak exports were price erosion in the generic market in USA due to consolidation among customers i.e. the distribution channels, increase in competition, absence of blockbuster drugs going off patent and regulatory issues faced by Indian Pharma companies.

In the financial year 2016-17, the profit margins of the industry remained almost at the year ago level. The industry's operating margin contracted by 70 basis points to 25.6% and the net margin eroded by 20 basis points to 14.5% on a y-o-y basis.

C) OUTLOOK

- i) Domestic market: As per the Union Budget 2017-18, the government wants to ensure the availability of drugs at reasonable prices and so it may continue with the drug price control regime which can have an impact on prices. The domestic demand for formulations however is expected to grow steadily backed by growth in presence of chronic diseases, increasing per capita income, improvement in access to healthcare facilities and penetration of health insurance.
- ii) Export market: The Indian pharmaceutical industry is likely to face competition from other countries to get ANDA approval. Apart from this, the Indian pharma companies will continue to witness pricing pressure in the US generics market due to consolidation of distribution channels and increase in competition. The pharma export volumes from India to US however are expected to rise. This will be backed by about USD 55 billion expected sales gain to generics drugs on account of branded drugs going off patent during 2018-19 which will create an opportunity for CRAMS segment. We expect growth rate for CRAMS to be higher compared to average growth rate of the industry. These factors are likely to support pharma exports from India.

INDUSTRY OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

The Indian Pharmaceutical Companies has the advantages of Competent Workforce, Cost-effective Chemical Synthesis, Solid legal framework and Strong financial markets. Hence the Indian Pharmaceutical Industry consists of quality producers and a large number of units are approved by regulatory agencies of USA and European Countries. Indian Pharmaceutical companies are very strong in Chemistry and Chemical Process Development. In view of the above, Indian Pharmaceutical companies are expected to grab a major share of the outsourcing opportunities (CRAMS) from Global generic companies.

However, increasing infrastructural costs and high power tariff are bound to make the company's products more expensive. The company also has to watch the new patent regime which may restrict the manufacture of some of the new drugs. The Indian Pharma Industry (IPI) has to contend several challenges, particularly the impact of new product patent, laws, Drug Price Control, Regulatory Reforms, Infrastructure Development.

The Company believes that competition in the market has to be met squarely by developing and improving production systems based on cost efficiency, high productivity, newer and modern technology and timely deliveries. Accordingly, the Company is gearing itself to exploit the opportunities by developing innovative production process. Constant efforts are being made to meet the stringent quality requirements in all markets. New markets are being explored and efforts are on-going to widen the depth and penetration of the existing markets.

Because of the inherent limitations of Internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. ## B. Property, Plant and Equipment.

Items of Property, Plant and Equipment, are measured at the cost of acquisition or construction less accumulated depreciation. The cost of fixed assets includes non-refundable taxes, duties, freight and other incidental expenses related to the acquisition and installation of the respective assets. Borrowing costs directly attributable to acquisition or construction of those fixed assets which necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use are capitalised.

Depreciation

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is provided based on straight line basis on useful lives of the assets as prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013. Depreciation is calculated on a pro-rata basis from the date of installation till the date the assets are sold or disposed. Land is not depreciated.

Software for internal use, which is primarily acquired from third-party vendors and which is an integral part of a tangible asset, including consultancy charges for implementing the software, is capitalised as part of the related tangible asset. Subsequent costs associated with maintaining such software are recognised as expense as incurred. The capitalised costs are amortized over the estimated useful life of the software or the remaining useful life of the tangible fixed asset, whichever is lower.

C. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Ind AS (Indian Accounting Standard) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the results of operations during the reporting year. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates.
